A luxury boutique apartment development in the heart of Cammeray is attracting plenty of attention thanks to its unique curved design features.

Mera Cammeray, at 361 Miller St, is just weeks away from full completion.

The complex originally comprised of 16 apartments, but four have been combined to create two very large homes.

The others include a two-bedroom garden apartment and a two-bedroom apartment on the second level.

Tim Abbott, of Ray White Lower North Shore Projects, said the majority of Mera buyers so far had been downsizers.

“The finishes are just superb,” he said.

“There has been a lot of thought to the design and construction.”

The building also has a shared rooftop garden styled by Coco Republic, that features a bespoke outdoor kitchen, with barbecue and wine fridge.

The penthouses are priced at $2,195,000 and $2,695,000, while the garden apartment is $1,495,000 and the level two apartment is $1,895,000.

Both penthouses have been set up as display apartments and will be open on Saturday from 11.30am-12.30pm.

For more information contact Mr Abbott, or Chris Girling, of Ray White Lower North Shore Special Projects.
